

Solicitors Qualifying Examination Roundtable

The Yorkshire Union of Law Societies has organised a roundtable event in advance of the implementation of the Solicitors Qualifying Examination ("SQE") in Autumn 2021 to assist its members prepare for the changes to legal education and entry to the profession.

This informative roundtable will assist Yorkshire firms understand what the SQE means for them, how it will work in practice, the likely costs, the tests, the providers and offer a perspective from those on the apprentice scheme.

Date: 09 June 2021

Time: 10:30am – 12pm

This event will be virtual.

To register please email amy.clowrey@switalskis.com.

This event is free to attend.

SPEAKERS

Julie Brannan,
Director of Education and
Training at the SRA

Tracy Savage,
BARBRI

Matthew Tomlinson, Dean at University of Law
(Sheffield and Leeds campuses)

Manda Banerji,
Chair of the Junior
Lawyers Division

Holly Moore,
Solicitor Apprentice
at ITV and SQE
delegate

Adele Edwin - Lamerton,
Education and Training Committee
of The Law Society

A-Maze Consulting

YORKSHIRE UNION OF LAW SOCIETIES